NGAN NAMED TO WPI SPRING 2023 DEAN'S LIST

Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) has announced that Amy Ngan of Everett, a member of the class of 2023 majoring in Biomedical Engineering, was named to the university's Dean's List for academic excellence for the spring 2023 semester.

A total of 2,054 undergraduate students achieved the criteria required for WPI's spring 2023 Dean's List. The criteria for the WPI Dean's List differs from that of most other universities as WPI does not compute a grade point average (GPA). Instead, WPI defines the Dean's List by the amount of work completed at the A level in courses and projects.

"WPI's academic programs are rigorous and require a level of independence beyond what is required in traditional courses. WPI students work on open-ended problems for communities around the world. The problems are important and the impact is real" said Professor Arthur C. Heinricher. "Some of this nation's best and brightest students come to WPI to study engineering and science and business and the humanities. Those named to the Dean's List have excelled in all of their work, and we are exceptionally proud of these outstanding students."

About Worcester Polytechnic Institute

WPI, a global leader in project-based learning, is a distinctive, top-tier technological university founded in 1865 on the principle that students learn most effectively by applying the theory learned in the classroom to the practice of solving real-world problems. Recognized by the National Academy of Engineering with the 2016 Bernard M. Gordon Prize for Innovation in Engineering and Technology Education, WPI's pioneering project-based curriculum engages undergraduates in solving important scientific, technological, and societal problems throughout their education and at more than 50 project centers around the world. WPI offers more than 70 bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs across 18 academic departments in science, engineering, technology, business, the social sciences, and the humanities and arts. Its faculty and students pursue groundbreaking research to meet ongoing challenges in health and biotechnology; robotics and the internet of things; advanced materials and manufacturing; cyber, data, and security systems; learning science; and more.

ZONTA CLUB OF CHELSEA & NORTH SHORE NEWS

BUILD A BETTER WORLD FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

The Zonta Club of Chelsea and North Shore recently held our first Spring Fundraiser since Covid at the Prince House of Pizza on Route 1 in Saugus. It was a fun night with all you could eat Pizza and great entertainment. The comedians who performed were Artie Januario, Tony V, and Brad Mastrangelo. The Zonta Club members want to thank all those who came and supported our club. The monies raised will continue to provide many services: we give Market Basket Gift certificates at the holidays to needy families, we provide school supplies for children living in shelters, we give scholarships for graduating high school girls and we have supported local domestic violence shelters and many other causes dedicated to assisting women and children. The women and children from Chelsea, Revere, Winthrop, Everett and Saugus benefit from the funds raised in our fundraisers. Our goal is to “Build a Better World for Women & Girls!”

OBITUARIES

Frank Fancieullo
GE Retiree

Frank A. Fancieullo, 91, of Everett passed away peacefully on Friday, May 19.

Born in Boston to the late Carmine and Merenda (Volpe) Fancieullo, he was the beloved husband of Mary (Viola) with whom he would have celebrated their 68th wedding anniversary in September. He was the devoted father of Frank C. of Everett, Lisa M. and her husband, Frank Iula of Stoneham and Sandra A. of Medford and loving Papa of Mary and Robert Iula.

Frank was a graduate of Bentley University and a former employee at General Electric Aircraft Engine Group in Lynn for 37 years. He was a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean Conflict and a member of the National Association of Atomic Veterans.

Funeral arrangements were by the Cafasso & Sons Funeral Home, 65 Clark St. (Corner of Main St.) Everett. Interment with U. S. Army Military Honors was at the Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

A SHORT STORY ABOUT GROWING UP WITH AN UNFAIR ADVANTAGE.

POLIO.

As one of the last American children to contract polio, Jeffrey Galpin grew up in a world of iron lungs and body casts, alone with his imagination. His story would be dramatic enough if it was just about his battle with this dreaded disease.

But Jeffrey Galpin did more than survive polio. He went on to a list of achievements in medical research—including being the principal investigator in applying the first gene therapy for HIV/AIDS.

Dr. Galpin actually credits his own incurable condition for giving him the focus that made him so passionate in his research. His story leaves us with two of the most contagious messages we know. Don't give up, and remember to give back. If Dr. Galpin's story inspires just one more person to make a difference, then its telling here has been well worth while.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2023

A high school graduation is a singular event in the life of every community, where almost everybody knows one of the graduates or their families. All of us share the happiness and sense of achievement of our young people who will be receiving their diplomas. And for all of us, a high school graduation brings back our own fond memories from our long-gone youth.

For the graduates themselves, their high school graduation marks both an end and a beginning. They no longer are children, either in the eyes of the law or in reality. They are full-fledged adults who will be leaving the sheltered harbor of their families and communities and setting sail on a journey that none of them will be able to anticipate, but which will be full of surprises, both good and otherwise.

Yes, graduation is a bittersweet time, both for the grads and their family members.

For the parents who will be watching their sons and daughters step to the podium when their name is called, no doubt they will be thinking of how fast time has gone by since they first brought their child by the hand to preschool and kindergarten.

Such moments bring to mind the sentiments expressed in the lyrics of the song, Sunrise, Sunset, from the musical Fiddler on the Roof:

Is this the little girl I carried
Is this the little boy at play?
I don't remember growing older
When did they?
When did she get to be a beauty
When did he grow to be so tall?
Wasn't it yesterday when they were small?

We congratulate the Class of 2023 for all of the accomplishments that have earned them the right to step onto that podium to receive their diplomas.

We know we join with all of the members of our community in wishing them blue skies and sunny days, both on their Graduation Day and in the years ahead.

MCCARTHY, BIDEN DESERVE PRAISE

As this is being written, it would appear that the deal struck between President Joe Biden and House Speaker Kevin McCarthy over the weekend to raise the nation's debt limit has averted what would have been a cataclysmic economic event, not only for the United States, but for the entire world.

By no means are we experts in the intricacies of the bond markets and their interaction with the world economy, but it's clear that if the U.S. government had been unable to pay its bills, there would have been significant consequences for the entire global economy.

In our country, there would be a question as to whether Social Security payments, salaries for the military and other government employees, and countless other obligations would be paid on time.

We have to admit that we were among the skeptics who thought that Joe Biden could not have pulled it off, but he managed to do it. And yes, we also have to say that Kevin McCarthy rose above the fray, so to speak, for the good of the country.

Hopefully, their agreement will receive the support it deserves from the members of their parties in Congress so that our elected officials can return to the job of actually governing.

PROGRESSIVES: PLEASE GET REAL

If you've been following the histrionics of the debt limit negotiations these past few weeks, the political theatre on all sides of the political spectrum has been amusing. Republicans will tell us that the country's burgeoning deficit will lead us to ruin thanks to the Democrats, and a few minutes later, the Democrats will assert that the Republicans are holding the country hostage to their unreasonable demands.

As always, the reality lies somewhere in the middle. We know that a good chunk of the so-called Republican Party has only one goal -- to sow as much chaos as possible, whether by overt means (e.g., January 6) or otherwise -- so their posturing on the debt ceiling is not surprising. But what has been disappointing is that the Progressives on the Democratic side have been bad-mouthing the deal -- for which we have a few comments:

1) The Democratic agenda came out way ahead in the final bill. To the extent that President Biden and his team made some concessions, they were minimal. We would remind Progressives that politics is the art of compromise.

2) Progressives who complain that Republicans were holding the country "hostage" are being hypocritical because that's exactly what they did when they refused to pass the Build Back Better infrastructure bill until they got what turned out to be the Inflation Reduction Act (although their strategy backfired and they ended up with a lot less than they would have gotten if they'd moved ahead with the BBB quickly).

3) But the biggest problem with Progressives' deceptive assertion that, "Joe Biden let us down," is that some of their supporters might actually believe it -- when that is not even remotely the truth -- and in so doing, these Progressives only contribute to the sort of cynicism about government that brought us the outcome in 2016 when many Progressive voters either did not turn out to support Hilary Clinton or voted for Jill Stein.

The bottom line is that Progressive officeholders need to stop their constant stream of exaggerated negativism. It's bad for the country and ultimately is counterproductive to their own agenda.

GUEST OP-ED

Enjoy your stuff, but be prepared to let it go

Dr. Glenn Mollette

One of the perils of life is putting too much value on "stuff." Stuff can be about anything. It can consist of what we have or what we don't have.

Much of life is about our stuff. Our house, cars, things in the house. Things around the house and things in the garage, storage building, barns and more barns. If we work hard, it's possible to accumulate lots of stuff. Often, we have more than we need.

We paint, stain, groom and polish our stuff. Sometimes we put in in cases, drawers, cabinets and even safes. We know how difficult it is to buy and accumulate. Stuff is expensive.

We take pride in our stuff. We admire, adore and feel good about what we have. We remember days when we didn't have much, wanted more and maybe felt poor. It felt good to get a check and even better to put a few dollars in the bank.

Me, me, and I often became our most significant heroes. We applaud ourselves because we did it, whatever it is. It's all good because we know where we could be or what could have been or what even might be if luck, circumstances and health had changed or still might change.

The problem with stuff is that it does change. It fades, erodes, rots, burns, is stolen, or simply becomes worthless. What might have been valuable may have changed. Life is always changing.

If you have a lot of stuff then you have lot to worry about. You can't keep from worrying some.

In time, all of your stuff will belong to someone else. Your land. Your prized possessions. All that you have worked to collect and preserve. Stuff is passed on or gained by someone else. You can make a plan of passing your stuff on to someone else but they may not really care about it and immediately hand it over to a complete stranger. Once anything is out of your hands then who knows what will happen.

We all die sooner or later and we take nothing with us. All of our stuff is left behind and eventually, sometime down the road of life, everything will end up in a junk or trash pile. Fifty years from now people you have never heard of might sleep in your bed in your house, if your house is still in existence.

There once was a man who had so much stuff that he had to build multiple barns. One day he was self-talking, "I have so much stored up for many years. I'm going to take it easy, eat drink and be merry." Later that day he died. Jesus talked about this guy in one of his stories found in Luke chapter 16. Chances are anyone might identify with the man Jesus talked about if our existence becomes too wrapped up in all of our stuff.

Enjoy your stuff but be prepared to let it all go.

Brendan Collier joins Malden Catholic as Varsity Boys Hockey Coach

William Raycraft, Malden Catholic Director of Athletics has announced that MC alum, Brendan Collier, will head the Malden Catholic Varsity Boys Hockey program.

"I am extremely thrilled and grateful to return 'home' to Malden Catholic and I'm very excited about the opportunity to lead these young athletes," Collier stated. "Malden Catholic has a rich and storied hockey program history and having experienced two Super 8 Championships myself when I attended the school, I understand the overwhelming pride and value that ensues from being part of MC's tradition of excellence. I look forward to building upon the school's legacy of success."

Brendan Collier's accolades as a four-year Lancer are second to none in Massachusetts and in New England hockey. The former Lancer hockey captain and Charlestown resident led MC's hockey program to two straight Super 8 tournament titles in 2011 and 2012. In addition to tallying a goal in his senior year's Super 8 final, Collier also netted the overtime game-winner during the Division 1A final the previous season against St. John's Prep. Collier led all Division 1 scorers his senior season, holding a six-point advantage over the second-place finisher. He was named ESPN Boston's Mr. Hockey and committed to Boston University and then moved on to finish as captain of the Northeastern University program while earning Hockey East All-Academic Team status. Ultimately, he was selected by the Carolina Hurricanes in the 2012 NHL.

Since his playing days, Collier has turned his passion for the game toward coaching where he has recently been the Head Hockey Coach for Catholic Conference rival, Boston College High School. His other stints include Northern Mass Hockey, Max Pro Skills and GBL Junior Bruins.

"Coach Collier is an outstanding leader who has a deep and thorough knowledge of the game and is determined to reignite the winning tradition of MC Boys Hockey. He knows how to inspire, listen, teach and win -- all qualities that will translate well to the ice and make him a terrific and successful head coach," commented Raycraft. "He emerged out of a very strong pool of applicants, and we are very excited to have him onboard."

Collier was also inducted into the Brother Daniel Cremin C.F.X., Malden Catholic Hall of Fame in March 2023 along with the members of the MC 2010-2011 hockey team. Plus, he was a multi-sport athlete while at Malden Catholic, playing Varsity Golf and Lacrosse.

CITY OF EVERETT HOSTS MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE

The City of Everett gathered alongside residents, veterans, local officials and City employees at the Gold Star Gazebo at Glenwood Cemetery to honor and remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our country.

Antoine Coleman, the City of Everett’s Director of Veterans Services, was pleased to welcome this year’s keynote speaker, David Nicastro. Nicastro served in the United States Marine Corps beginning in August 1996 as an infantryman and was selected to Security Forces School where he served from 1997 to 2003. He was honorably discharged from the marines a sergeant and quickly entered the war in Iraq as a private security/government contractor from 2004 to 2007, where he worked closely with intelligence agencies as a covert security agent, and Afghanistan from 2007 to 2014. Nicastro would then come home because he wanted to raise his three young children and also became a Massachusetts State Trooper in 2015 until 2020 when he was discharged because of post-traumatic stress connected to the many years of unprocessed traumas from war and his combat service. He currently volunteers with Amirah Inc., a nonprofit that provides safe refuge for women removed from the life of sex trafficking, exploitation and prostitution. He is also a group leader with the Welcome Home Initiative (WHI), retreat centers in New York and Virginia Beach, providing veterans of war a place to process through their own post-traumatic stress, addictions, and unresolved traumas.

In addition to Nicastro, speakers at the service included Antoine Coleman, Bishop Robert Brown, Senator Sal DiDomenico and State Rep. Joe McGonagle.

The award-winning Everett High School (EHS) Band performed patriotic selections throughout the service like the Star-Spangled Banner, God Bless America and America The Beautiful. The service continued with the roll call of all Everett veterans who have passed since last year and was immediately followed by the playing of TAPS by a member of the EHS Band. The service concluded with final remarks from the City of Everett’s Veterans Service Office and the EHS Band performing God Bless the USA.

CITY OF EVERETT RESTORES AND RE-INSTALLS CIVIL WAR CANNON AT GLENWOOD CEMETERY

Mayor Carlo DeMaria is pleased to announce the City of Everett’s Facilities Maintenance Department has restored, repaired and re-installed a memorial cannon at Glenwood Cemetery.

The cannon was commissioned in 1864 and was dedicated in 1938 as a memorial for the members of James A. Perking Post 156 Union veterans of the Civil War who lie at rest in this spot.

“I want to thank our Facilities Maintenance Department for doing such an amazing job with restoring, repairing and bringing this great historical artifact back to its original condition,” said Mayor DeMaria. “It was a painstaking process and the diligence that was applied in keeping it true to its original form is quite evident in the final result.”

Residents are welcome and encouraged to visit Glenwood Cemetery to view the restored historical cannon and memorial. The memorial is located just a short walking distance from the Gold Star Gazebo on the same road.

itize the projects, though the voting process has not been determined.

Ward 2 Councillor Stephanie Martins, an advisor to the Everett Youth Council Initiative, said that councilors will have the opportunity to ask questions about the entire process at the Ways and Means Committee meeting.

“The proposal would then be referred out from the Committee either with no recommendation, an unfavorable recommendation, or favorable recommendation,” explained Martins. “I expect once it gets back to the Council, there will be additional questions before we vote it up or down.”

Martins said there has been some confusion about the issue. “The Council will not be giving a blank check to the students [for funding various projects]. They’re just allocating the money that will sit until the process is completed, and the funds will then go toward the projects that the people have voted for,” said Martins.

Members of the Everett Youth Council Initiative (from left) students Kien Lau, Shreeya Musyaju, and Thalia Patino, are pictured at the last City Council meeting where the $1 million allocation for various city projects was discussed by the City Council. The matter will be before the Ways and Committee at its meeting Monday, June 5 at 6 p.m.

chael Marchese agreed with Smith’s motion to send the matter to the Ways and Means Committee. Marchese spoke after City Clerk Sergio Cornelio clarified that the amount of funding will be $1 million, not $2 million as one councilor had inferred at the meeting.

“I don’t think it’s the amount that’s in question,” said Marchese. “I think it’s the issue of who is going to be overseeing the amount. And that’s why we have to send this [to Ways and Means]. You can’t just write a check to somebody and find out where it’s going unless we get to look at it – it’s not fair to the taxpayers or anybody. We just have to know where the money is going. That’s all. And I think that’s what Councilor Smith is alluding to [with her request].”

DIDOMENICO CELEBRATES UNIVERSAL SCHOOL MEALS

Last week, Senator DiDomenico joined Project Bread, Cindy Long, the Food and Nutrition Service Administrator for the US Department of Agriculture, Representative Andy Vargas, and many others for a roundtable discussion celebrating the work that the legislature, schools, and anti-hunger organizations have done in Massachusetts ensuring robust access to school meals. “I am proud to work alongside these dedicated groups, advocates, and colleagues and we will keep pushing and advocating until the Universal School Meals program is fully funded and made permanent in our state,” said Senator Sal DiDomenico. “This is the year to the make it happen and our students and families should not have to worry about food in our schools. Making free universal school meals permanent throughout the Commonwealth is one of my highest priorities this session.”

SOCIAL WORK ORGANIZATION TOUTS SUPPORT FOR BILL SPONSORED BY DIDOMENICO

Senator Sal DiDomenico joined the Massachusetts Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) for a legislative briefing alongside State Representative Christine Barber, and State Representative Mike Kushmerek. The briefing highlighted a bill DiDomenico filed alongside colleagues and NASW, the SUPER Act (S.160/H.1253), which will enable more providers to enter the social work field at a time of huge demand. “Massachusetts is facing a well-documented shortage of behavioral health professionals, including social workers,” said Senator Sal DiDomenico. “Social workers are some of the most essential workers in our state and we must do everything we can to support them and the people they serve. This bill will uplift the social work profession, bringing more providers into the field and empowering residents to access services from a diversity of providers.”

Shrinking world syndrome

By Penny & Ed Cherubino

On a recent stroll with a friend and his senior Cairn Terrier, this wise dog guardian talked about how important it was to continue with the longest walks his little dog would take, no matter how slow. Watching the dog sniff her way along the sidewalk, pausing to inhale an intriguing aroma a second or third time, we agreed. He was preventing shrinking world syndrome. In an article on teaching old dogs new tricks on the website The Wildest, author Jeannette Cooperman quoted certified veterinary behaviorist Dr. Lore Haug. “A lot of old dogs get what I call the ‘shrinking world’ syndrome.” “Their owners get in a rut with them; they start walking the dog less... and they don’t train the dog or teach him tricks. The dog doesn’t get as much stimulation and enrichment — maybe they stop taking the dog to the dog park — and there’s a significant decline in mental and physical challenges.”

Symptoms

Dr. Haug outlined the changes you might see if your dog begins to have the cognitive dysfunction that isolation can cause. These include changes in their sleep patterns, disorientation, housetraining mishaps, pacing, and vocalizing at night. Your dog may begin to experience separation anxiety and cling to you. On the other hand, a senior dog might be less interested in greeting or interacting with family members. Slowly they are not acting like the dog you knew.

Prevention

We are all becoming aware of the importance of socialization, exercise, and stimulation for the human brain. The same is true for dogs. However, in the case of dogs, it’s easier to take the steps that will prevent decline than when a person in our family decides to spend hours in a recliner watching a screen. First, look around and see if you can change anything about your home that will make your dog feel safer or more secure doing simple things like walking around, getting up on the sofa, joining you on the bed, or enjoying a meal. Non-skid rugs may make walking on slippery floors easier. Steps up to a couch or bed to visit you or a favorite window view could help. Nightlights along the floor may help low-vision dogs find their way in the dark. You can use scented toys to play with a blind dog and dog whistles, clickers, and noise makers that can catch the attention of dogs with hearing loss. Slow walks can be interesting for older dogs if they are physically up to the task. You can bring a stroller for a small dog or a wagon for a larger pal. This will ensure you can give your dog a rest or a ride home when they tire. Sitting on a bench or blanket in the park might be a welcome change of scenery for a dog.

Training

Teaching your old dog new tricks or behaviors is a great way to stimulate their time at home.

Sometimes, it might be an adaptation of a behavior the dog already knows. For example, you could teach the hand signals that match the words you use to communicate, like sit, down, and wait. It’s hard to watch your dog age, but knowing you can prevent some of the changes can give you a way to be proactive to slow the aging process. What’s more, many of the tasks that are good for your dog are also good for you!

EHS BASEBALL TEAM WINS 4-OF-5 CONTESTS TO REACH THE TOURNEY

Two weeks ago, in the wake of a pair of heart-breaking losses to Greater Boston League rivals Somerville and Revere, the Everett High baseball team’s chances of qualifying for the post-season state tourney appeared slim at best.

The double-dip to Somerville (by a score of 1-0) and Revere (by a 9-7 final score) left coach Joel Levine’s Crimson Tide with a record of 6-9, which meant that in order to achieve the magic .500 tourney-qualifying mark, they would need to win four of their last five games to punch a ticket for a Journey to the Tourney.

But successive wins over Medford and Charlestown two weeks ago accomplished half of that goal, and Levine’s crew completed their mission with two more victories this past week in contests with Greater Lawrence and Mystic Valley.

In an 11-3 triumph over Greater Lawrence last Monday at Glendale Park, starting pitcher Matt Turilli turned in a fourth consecutive strong start with what Levine termed a “fantastic” outing in which Matt yielded just two earned runs over the complete-game, seven-inning route.

Everett took a commanding 7-0 lead in the second inning and never looked back. Albert Santana led the way offensively (2-for-4 with an RBI and a run scored). Also contributing were Omar Marshall (1-for-3, two RBI), Alex Velasco (1-3, two RBI), Nordeivy Santana (1-4), Alex Lara (1-4), and Enrico Vega (1-1 three runs scored).

“It was nice to get back to .500 and give us an opportunity over the next two games to try and qualify for the tournament,” said Levine. “The kids really worked hard over the past two weeks to put us in this position.”

However, Levine and his crew had to put a hold on the celebration when they came up short in a bizarre return match that started at Greater Lawrence on Wednesday and ended up at Glendale on Thursday.

In a strange continuation of the game because of the weather, the teams began play at GL’s home field, but when the rains came, the umpires halted matters with the score tied at 3-3. The teams continued the game on Thursday at Glendale when the Tide were unable to return to Greater Lawrence because of transportation issues.

GL graciously made the long trek to Everett and then played the spoiler role on the Tide’s home diamond in cruel fashion with a walk-off victory (because they were still the home team). The score remained level at 3-3 until the bottom of the seventh, when GL pushed ahead the winning run thanks to a walk, two stolen bases, and a throwing error.

Starter Nordeivy Santana threw four strong innings, giving up three earned runs. The Tide were led at the plate by David Saia (2-3) and Turilli (2-3).

“We were unable to capitalize early in the game when we had a number of runners on and in scoring position,” noted Levine. “Like last year, that brought us to the last game of the season needing a win to get in.”

However, there would prove to be no need for late-inning dramatics for the Crimson Tide in the season-finale contest with Mystic Valley on Friday. The Tide celebrated Senior Night in grand fashion by blasting their way into the tourney with an 8-1 win over MV at Glendale.

Omar Marshall turned in what Levine termed as a “spectacular” pitching effort in the tournament-clinching victory. Omar threw a complete game one-hitter with no earned runs.

With Everett tralling 1-0 entering the third,

Marshall (2-4, two runs, one RBI) stepped to the plate and helped his own cause with a blast that enabled him to speed around the bases for an inside-the-park home run to tie the game.

The Tide tacked on two more runs in that inning and never looked back. Saia led the way offensively (3-4, two RBI, three runs). Velasco, Nordeivy Santana, Lara, and Turilli also had hits in the game.

“It was really a great way to cap off the regular season and send the seniors off on Senior Night with a win,” said Levine. “It was nice to see the excitement from the kids when the game was over. You can tell it meant a lot to them. Now we need to see if we can go and shock someone, and with the way Matt and Omar are throwing the ball, it’s not all that far fetched.”

The announcement of the Crimson Tide’s final seeding in the MIAA’s power rankings and their first round tourney opponent is expected today (Wednesday).

EHS SOFTBALL TEAM WINS FINAL TWO GAMES; AWAITS TOURNEY FOE

The Everett High softball team wrapped up its regular season last week with a pair of victories over non-league opponents Minuteman Regional, 7-0, and Cambridge, 3-0.

Lady Crimson Tide star pitcher Kristi Skane pitched a stellar 14 innings of shutout softball in the two victories, racking up her seventh and eighth shutouts of the season.

In the triumph at Minuteman last Monday, Kristi yielded just three hits while fanning six opponents and walking only one, and in the Cambridge win last Wednesday, she tossed a four-hitter with six strikeouts and only one base-on-balls.

In the win over Minute-man, the Lady Crimson Tide gave Kristi all of the support she would need when they grabbed a 2-0 lead in the opening inning thanks to a pair of errors by Minuteman and base hits by Kayley Rossi and Gianna Masucci.

Masucci made it 4-0 in the third with a clutch, two-RBI base hit that scored Skane (who had reached on an error) and Rossi (who had singled).

Minuteman threatened in the bottom of the third, placing runners at second and third with one out, but Bryanna Mason snared a line drive and Skane caught a pop-up to end the threat.

After a scoreless fourth inning, in which Everett center fielder Emilia Maria-Babcock made the defensive play of the game with an amazing diving catch, and a scoreless fifth, in which Babcock again made another great catch, the Lady Crimson Tide extended their advantage with two more runs in the sixth.

Masucci reached on an error and soon came racing home on a double by Mason, who herself then scored on a base hit by Longmore.

Base hits by Babcock and Skane and an error accounted for the final Everett run and the 7-0 finale.

“When Minuteman had runners on, our defense stepped up their game and backed up Kristi’s pitching,” said EHS head coach Stacy Poste-Schiavo. “Kayley.Rossi always does a great job behind the plate with Kristi, but she made sure she stopped any wild pitches to stop runners from advancing.”

The win over Cambridge two days later was a scoreless pitcher’s duel through four full innings until the Tide broke through in the bottom of the fifth.

Cambridge itself almost snapped the deadlock in the top of the fifth by loading the bases on three scratch-type base hits, but Skane escaped the jam when she snagged a bouncer back to the circle and threw to Rossi at home for the force at the plate to keep Cambridge off the board.

In the Everett fifth, Mason led off with a double and, after Longmore drew a one-out walk, both runners advanced on a passed ball. Maria-Babcock then singled into the outfield, with Longmore scoring on some great base-running on the play at the plate.

Skane was hit by a pitch, and when Kristi attempted to steal second and was thrown out, Maria-Babcock was able to race home to make it 3-0.

Skane remained in full control over the final two innings to preserve the win and her shutout.

“Our defense played tough, especially when they got runners on,” said Poste-Schiavo. “That fifth inning could have changed the game around if they had gotten the ball out of the infield.”

Prior to last week’s games, Poste-Schiavo and her crew learned that they had won an undisputed Greater Boston League championship thanks to Medford’s win over Lynn Classical the previous Friday.

“On Friday, we were waiting to hear the news of who won the Medford/Classical game,” said Poste-Schiavo. “Last year, we shared the GBL title with Classical and we were tied for first again with them, but Medford beat them to allow us to have the first place title for ourselves. We still would have loved to have beaten Medford earlier that week. It would have been a different feeling to clinch it during the actual game instead of having to wait.

“But either way, I am so proud of the girls and how much they have accomplished throughout the season,” Poste-Schiavo continued. “There are always 2-3 standouts on a team, but I truly believe THIS team is made up of 14 players who play well together, and when you have teammates who can play well together, then you win games.”

The Lady Crimson Tide already have received post-season accolades with the selections of Kristi Skane and Kayley Rossi to play in the Agganis softball game in Lynn on Sunday, June 26th, at 1:00.

The season’s statistics reveal that seven Lady Crimson Tide are hitting over .400. Their individual stats are as follows:

CF Emilia Maria-Babcock: .542 batting average and an .819 slugging percentage (singles=30, doubles= 2, triples=3, home runs=4) and 21 RBI;

3B Alexa Uga: .477 batting average and a .662 slugging percentage (singles=24, doubles= 4, triples=1, home runs=2) and 23 RBI;

1B Bryanna Mason: .475 batting average and an .831 slugging percentage (singles=16, doubles= 7, triples=1, home runs=4) and 15 RBI;

Public urged to report shark sightings

Special to the Times-Free Press

After a 12-foot white shark was spotted off Cape Cod over the week-end, New England Aquarium scientists are urging the public to report shark sightings and be aware of their surroundings as the holiday weekend approaches.

The shark was seen feeding on a seal off of Provincetown, MA, on Saturday. This is the time of year that scientists expect to see white sharks returning to the inshore waters off of Massachusetts, where the animals hunt seals into the fall months.

“Though white shark bites on humans are rare, the sighting serves as a reminder to beachgoers and boaters to be mindful of the presence of these ocean animals,” said John Chisholm, adjunct scientist in the New England Aquarium’s Anderson Cabot Center for Ocean Life. “It’s important to be aware of sharks’ presence in shallow waters, to avoid areas where seals are present or schools of fish are visible, and to stay close to shore where rescuers can reach you if needed.”

As part of a partnership between the New England Aquarium and Atlantic White Shark Conservancy, Chisholm serves as the Citizen Science Coordinator for the Conservancy, documenting accounts of shark-seal interactions and verifying shark sighting reports made by the public through the Sharktivity app. Sharktivity provides information and push notifications on white shark sightings, detections, and movements to raise awareness and help people and sharks co-exist. The app sightings are input by researchers, safety officials, and others who upload photos and video, essentially crowdsourcing critical data on where sharks are spotted.

“There is a real public concern around beach safety, and we recognize the need to respond to that,” said Nick Whitney, senior scientist at the Aquarium and chair of the Anderson Cabot Center’s Fisheries Science and Emerging Technologies program. “That’s why we’re excited to continue this partnership with the Conservancy to help provide accurate, timely information on shark sightings in the region.”

The New England Aquarium has a team of nine scientists who study shark species, from porbeagles and nurse sharks to sandbar and sand tiger sharks. Many shark species reside in Massachusetts waters. Aquarium researchers’ work focuses on monitoring of these animals using innovative tagging technologies including satellite, acoustic, accelerometer, and camera tags to track the sharks’ habitat use, life history, and impacts of bycatch during commercial and recreational fishing activities.

In the pitching department, Kristi Skane has tossed 109 innings with a record of 17-2, including eight shutouts. She has allowed 65 hits and 27 earned runs for a sterling ERA of 1.73. Kristi has racked up 143 strikeouts while walking only 26.

“The team has greatly benefitted from Skane being in the circle with Kayley Rossi behind the plate,” noted Poste-Schiavo. “The two are also friends off the field which contributes to the rapport they have built. Kayley knows Kristi’s strengths and weaknesses and what pitches she has going for her before the game starts. They have spent this entire season polishing up on Kristi’s pitching skills to help the team keep runners off the bases. You can also see the trust Kristi has in Kayley in stopping any wild pitches and allowing her to call the pitches, even when Kristi may think they are not working that day. Kristi played outfield before stepping into the pitching role this year. She worked hard in the off season to come back as the best pitcher in the GBL, helping lead this team to win the GBL title. Coach Nigro and I believe the reason this team did so well again this season is because they work together, contributing to our success whether it be at practice or a game.”

Poste-Schiavo and her crew will await the announcement today (Wednesday) of their final seeding and first-round opponent in the upcoming MIAA state tournament.

EHS BOYS VOLLEYBALL TEAM WINS FINAL PAIR

The Everett High boys volleyball team closed out its 2023 season on a positive note by winning its last two matches, including a 3-1 win over Pioneer Charter School last Friday in the season finale.

Missing three regulars, Everett finished the contest with just eight players, as junior Hyan Soares De-Casto exited after the first set. However, Hyan made the most of his limited time, tallying two kills and serving the Crimson Tide out of a 19-12 hole to a 21-19 lead. Fellow junior Kaleb Miranda continued his dominant front row play, adding two blocks and two kills. Sophomores Henrique Franca and Jefferson Umana combined for five kills, including Umana’s game-winner that gave Everett the 25-23 opening-set win.

“We did not start very well, but we did not panic,” said EHS head coach Mike Fineran. “Once we buckled down and actually started moving to get the ball, I knew we’d be okay.”

In the second set, senior co-captain Roberto Brizuela had three serves that gave Everett a 14-10 lead. Junior Nischal Tamang, who hit in all 11 serves for the match, put the Tide up, 21-17. Franca had five kills in the set, and Umana had an ace, a block, and two more kills, including the second game winner, 25-21.

Everett seemed to be cruising to a win in the third set, with five serves from sophomore setter Dantae Bauer putting the Tide up, 16-13. Junior Andrew Linhares came alive, nailing four kills and a block. Miranda had two kills and a block, and Franca had three kills. Junior Dawens Germain, who was limited to just 14 sets this season after injuring his elbow in the first week, had a block and a kill.

After a Franca serve, the Tide thought they were ahead, 24-20, but they were penalized for being out of rotation, which made it 23-21. Pioneer took advantage, serving out the set for a 25-23 win

“We have been in this situation many times this season, on the verge of victory, but falling short,” said Fineran. “We missed the tournament by two games, and there have been at least three matches where we’ve been in control and let it slip away.

But we did not want to end our season that way, and we refocused for the fourth set. “

Germain, moving over to middle hitter, had two kills and five service points that gave Everett an 8-4 lead. Tamang had three serves to build a 12-8 advantage. Miranda had four blocks and two kills, Brizuela neutralized Pioneer’s attack with stellar defense, and the duo of Bauer and Umana combined to go 10/10 on serves.

“Bauer and Umana each served more than 200 times this season,” noted Fineran.

The match, and the season, ended fittingly: Umana served in, Brizuela handled Pioneer’s attack, getting the ball to Bauer, who set it perfectly to the outside hitter spot, where Franca soared and smashed it down for the final point in a 25-22 win. It was Franca’s 16th kill of the day, giving him 176 in just 14 games.

“Henrique is an incredible athlete, but he’s also a great kid, humble, and a hard worker,” said Fineran. “He is one of four sophomores who will return next season with varsity experience. In fact, eight of the nine players from this game should return next year. We fell short of our goal to make the state tournament, but I am hopeful and excited about the team’s potential in the future. I hope that we’ve learned our lesson about the importance of early season games, and about closing out opponents when you get the chance. Every team we played this year was better than they were last year, and we should expect that to be the case again next year. But I think we proved to ourselves what we are capable of when we play our best.”

Medford won the girls meet with 116 points, followed by Medford with 97 and Somerville with 85.

The highlight for the Lady Crimson Tide was the performance of the throwing team, crowning three GBL champions and scoring a total of 51 points.

Darynn Desrameaux won the discus with a spin of 91’-7” -- a throw that was 3’-5” further than her nearest rival -- and also took second in the shot-put with a toss of 31’-9” to tally a team-high 18 points on the day.

Darynn was edged in the shot by teammate Layla Betancur Cardona, who took first place with a throw of 31’-9.5”.

Kaesta Sandy was Everett’s third GBL champ, winning the javelin with a toss of 80’-1”. Teammate Victoria Macao took second spot in the jav with her effort of 76’-9” and Tiana Allen added four points in the javelin with her fourth-place throw of 73’-11.” Tiana also scored a point in the discus with a sixth-place effort of 70’-3”.

Ida Bittaye finished second in the long jump with a leap of 14’-10.5” to score eight points.

Malaica Guillaume scored six points with a third place effort in the triple jump with a distance of 31’-11.5”.

Yelsa Garcia scored a point and took home a medal with her sixth place performance in the long jump with a leap of 13’-11”.

Annual Deer Island Stroll Stepping Out to Cure Scleroderma walk set

Individuals living with and affected by scleroderma will join together at 9:00 a.m., on June 10, at Deer Island, 190 Taft Avenue, Winthrop, MA, to take part in the annual Deer Island Stroll - Stepping Out to Cure Scleroderma walk. Scleroderma is a rare rheumatic disease that affects connective tissue and the vascular system, producing excessive collagen that causes fibrosis in the skin (localized) or in internal organs (systemic sclerosis). The disease can cause disfigurement and disability. For some, it’s life-threatening. There is no known cause or cure. More than 300,000 Americans live with the disease.

This year marks a special occasion for the organization. The National Scleroderma Foundation is celebrating its 25th anniversary. Founded in 1998, the Foundation has been advancing medical research, promoting disease awareness, and providing support to people with scleroderma, their families and support networks for 25 years. For the last 20 of those years, walks have taken place across the country to bring awareness to the disease and raise funds to support the National Scleroderma Foundation’s mission.

“The scope of our work is nationwide,” said Mary Wheatley, CEO of the National Scleroderma Foundation. “And we are grateful to our supporters across the country who are leading the fight against this disease. Our Deer Island Stroll is a special one with walkers, organizers, and volunteers who are incredibly committed and passionate.”

Our local New England Chapter makes a difference in the lives of those living with and affected by scleroderma. The work to help individuals find their best path is happening nationwide and right here in the Boston community. Our walk is an opportunity to celebrate our scleroderma warriors.
